

Gratitude Grab Bag

Cut the prompts into strips. Fold and place in a bag or container for students to pick from. You can select one per day for the whole group to share, or each student can choose a different prompt.

Name a person you are grateful for and why.

Name a place you are grateful for and why.

Name a food you are grateful for and why.

Name a holiday you are grateful for and why.

Name a song you are grateful for and why.

Name a skill you are grateful for and why.

Name something in nature you are grateful for and why.

Name a tradition you are grateful for and why.

Name a scent you are grateful for and why.

Name a game you are grateful for and why.

Name something at school you are grateful for and why.

Name a season you are grateful for and why.

Name something at home you are grateful for and why.

Name something about yourself you are grateful for and why.

Name a word you are grateful for and why.

Name a memory you are grateful for and why.

Name a book you are grateful for and why.

Name a subject you are grateful for and why.